

February 26, 2004

Dear Friends and Supporting Partners,

Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I pray this finds all of you in good health. I am still on the road traveling and raising support. The Lord is truly blessing and answering prayers. There is so much that I am thankful for. First, I am thankful for the burden that He has placed upon my heart. Second, I am grateful for a great family that He has given to me, and last but not least for you and your dedication to see lost souls come to Christ.

I spoke to my father on the phone the other day and he said, "Steven son, there are a lot of anxious people here waiting for you to come. The Holy Spirit is beginning to move and you have not even got here yet." That really encouraged me so much. I know that I will be facing a lot and I know that it will not be easy. I also know He that hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Brethren, I do not know what tomorrow holds but I know who holds tomorrow.

I am doing what many of you cannot, I am going where many of you can not go, and I am willing to face what many of you cannot. Will you continue to give and PRAY? I leave very soon but I am not on my own, I have the great redeemer on my side. My request from you is this that you continue to pray for me, carry one another's burdens, and pray for each other. Hold steadfast until the Lord returns.

Philippians 1:6, "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ."

Your Missionary,
Steven N. Khoury

Gala. 2:20